Best Practices:1. The 'SEWA' GROUP: A Social Environmental Welfare Action (SEWA) Group

The SEWA undertakes Gram Swachata Abhiyan in the nearby villages to spread the importance of cleanliness and hygiene. It organizes blood donation camps on important days in the calendar of the Institute. The SEWA also undertakes environmental awareness drives by undertaking tree-planting drives. All these projects are annual features of the Institute.

2. EXTENDED FACILITY FOR STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

This practice of the Institute entails bringing about all-round development in the students by providing them with additional courses and coaching in areas necessary to build their personality and make them employable.
